Dear colleagues!
Dear friends!

As a result of the insidious attack of the Russian army, our lives have changed dramatically. The Transcarpathian region and the city of Uzhhorod have in recent days taken care of about 30,000 of our fellow citizens who became refugees and left their homes due to the bombing and attack by the Russian army. It is our civil duty to make their stay here as acceptable and comfortable as possible in order to survive this terrible war together.
